PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. LB 299 is next.

CLERK: Senator, I have E & R amendments, first of all, on 299.

SENATOR HOHENSTEIN: I move the adoption of the E & R amendments to LB 299.

PRESIDENT MOUL: You've heard the motion to adopt the E & R amendments. All those in favor please say aye. Opposed nay. The E & R amendments are adopted.

CLERK: Senator Beutler would move to amend the bill. (Beutler amendment appears on page 1234 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Madam President, members of the Legislature, my amendment is very short and it is being passed out to you right now. Basically, it is an effort to strengthen the bill. In the bill, it describes what course of conduct is that would be considered as harassment or part of the harassment definition and it says following or stalking a person or telephoning a person would be considered harassment and there are a couple more fairly explicit items that I pulled out of Section 42-924 on protective order language that I'm adding to that definition to make it absolutely clear that these things are covered too and one of the things that would be covered is detaining a person or imposing any restraint on their personal liberty and that language, imposing any restraint on their personal liberty, comes from 42-924, the domestic abuse statute. That's all it does. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Does anyone wish to address the Beutler amendment? Seeing none, we will now vote on the Beutler amendment to LB 299. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.
